

Versuche mit Hilfe der Bilder den Text zu übersetzen. Falls du Hilfe benötigst, klicke auf das

Quelle: Adeamus, Cornelsen.

Rufus trifft eine Freundin von Quintus auf dem Forum.

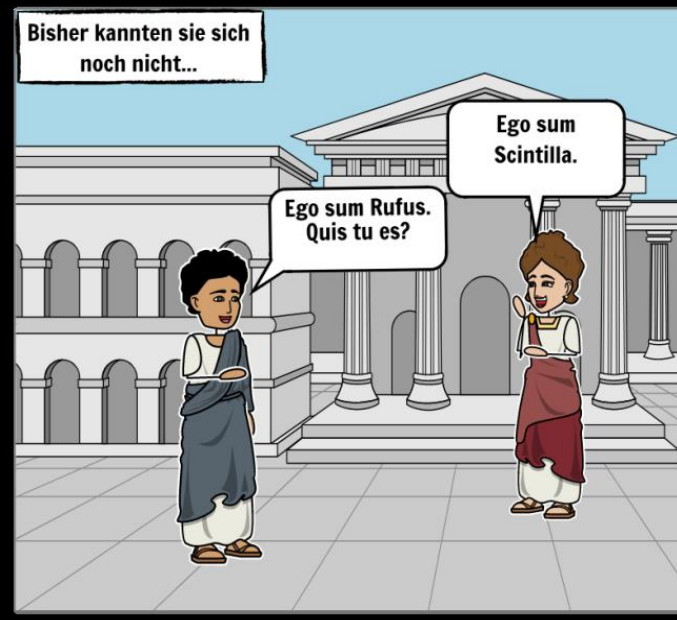

Salve!

Salve!

Salve! – Begrüßung im Lateinischen ?

The scene is set on a Roman forum with classical architecture. Rufus, a man in a blue and white tunic, and Scintilla, a woman in a red and white dress, are walking towards each other. They both say "Salve!".

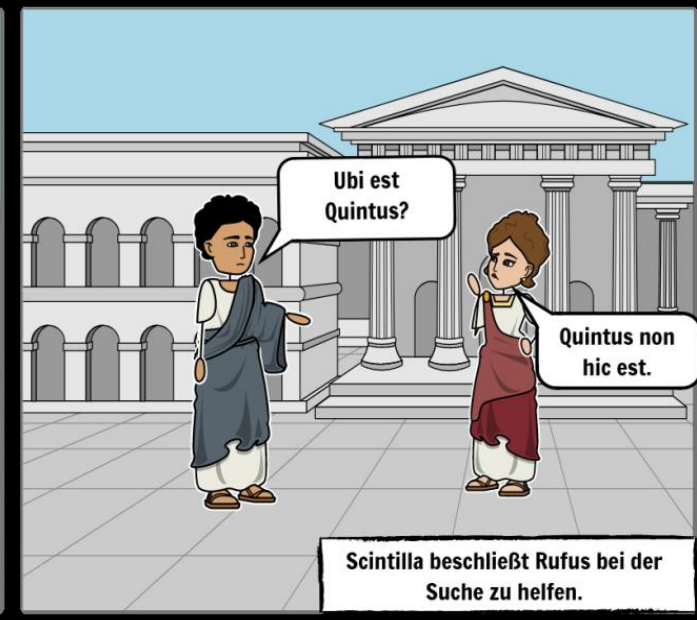

Bisher kannten sie sich noch nicht...

Ego sum Rufus. Quis tu es?

Ego sum Scintilla.

Rufus asks Scintilla for her name, and she replies with her own name.

Ubi est Quintus?

Quintus non hic est.

Scintilla beschließt Rufus bei der Suche zu helfen.

Rufus asks where Quintus is, and Scintilla tells him he is not here. She then offers to help him find him.

Amici!

Doch nur zwei Minuten später...

Rufus is walking through a large stone archway, looking happy. He says "Amici!".

Ecce, amica. Nunc amicus venit!

Optime! Ubi Quintus est, ibi gaudium est.

Rufus tells Scintilla that her friend has arrived, and she replies that where Quintus is, there is joy.

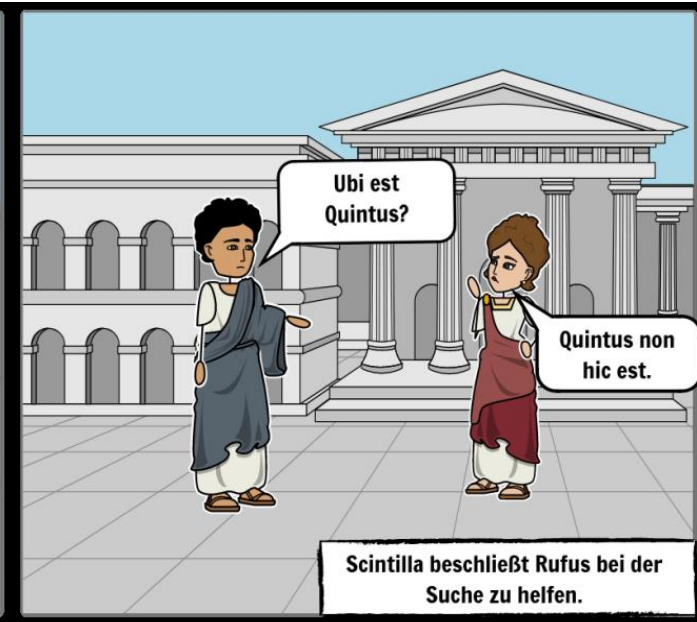

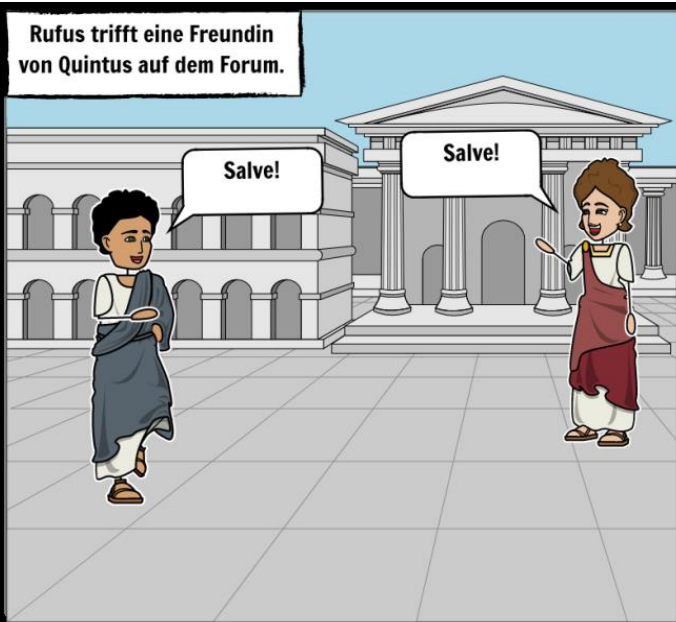

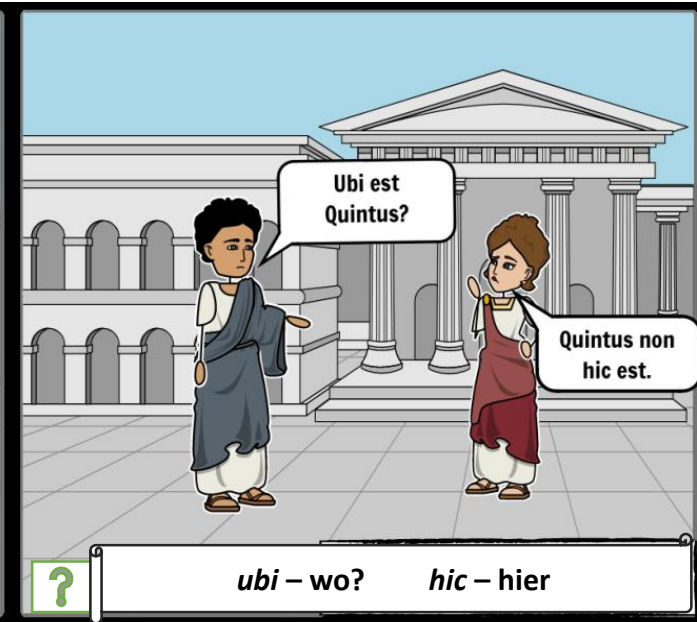

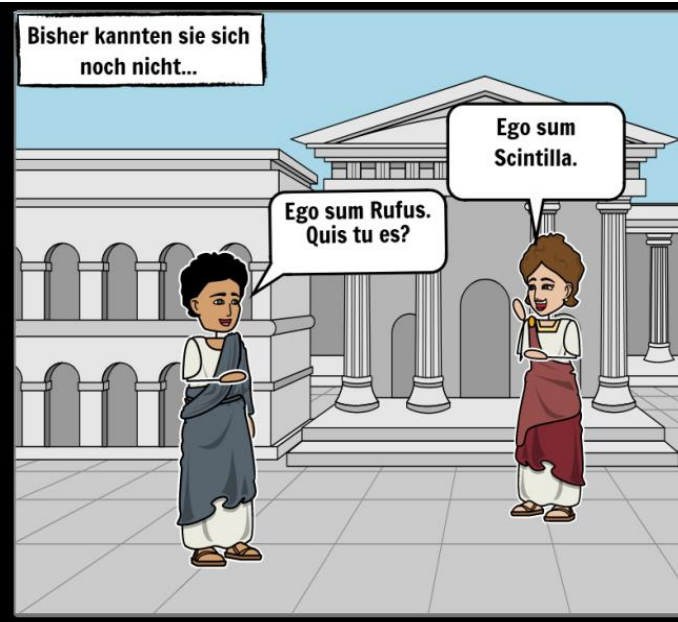

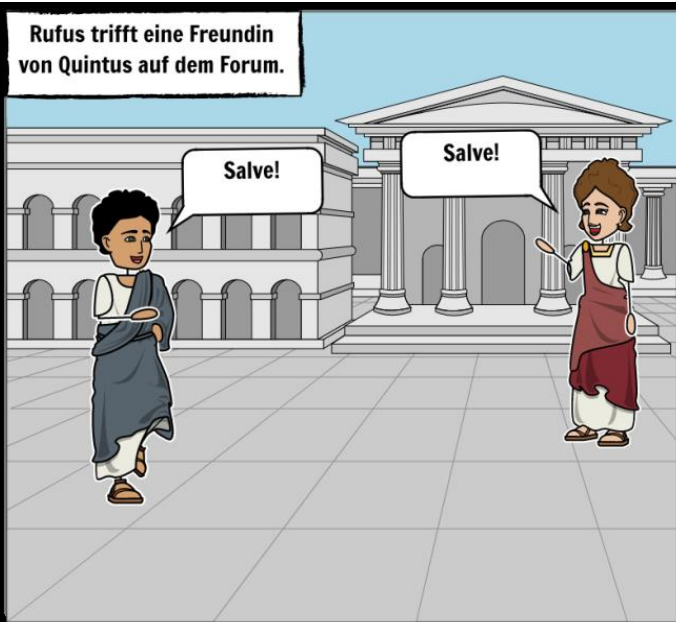

...

Die Freunde unterhielten sich und machten Pläne für den Nachmittag.

The three friends are now together, talking and planning for the afternoon.

? ubi – wo? hic – hier

Doch nur zwei Minuten später...

Die Freunde unterhielten sich und machten Pläne für den Nachmittag.

